Week 1—In Relationship with God

Day 4—January 9, 2019

Thrive in Worship

Oh come, let us sing to the Lord; let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation! Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise! For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. In his hand are the depths of the earth; the heights of the mountains are his also. The sea is his, for he made it, and his hands formed the dry land. Oh come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker! For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

Psalms 95:1-7 ESV

Heavenly Father, I ask you in the name of Jesus, to help me put myself in your hands. Take away my pride and my fears of what others might think of me and let me become one who adores you in spirit and in truth—transforming my weaknesses for your strengths. I seek your presence in my home and in my daily life. Let me become like David—shedding my riches and social status to praise you unapologetically and take me beyond my own abilities.

I thank you for always loving me even when I do not seem loving, and for chasing me down when I try my hardest to run as far as I possibly can. I ask that you keep breaking down the walls of my mind and my heart so that the Holy Spirit can dwell and work in me. From this moment on I ask that you forgive me and make me new, so I can continue working towards the kingdom of God.

Thank you, Jesus, for all you do, and all you will continue to do in my life. I ask all of this in the precious name of Jesus Christ. Amen.
