Week 2—With One Another

Day 9—January 14, 2019

Thrive in Families

Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise. You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

Deuteronomy 6:4-9 ESV

Lord my God, you are my keeper. You are my refuge. I know you will always be there. Please remind me who you are when I forget. Please place people around me that hold me accountable to your will. Likewise, help me to be a firmly rooted pillar in my family.

Lord, I will bind your words on my heart. Give me the strength to not only follow your will but also to profess your will to others. Let my testimony begin with my family and overflow to this world.

I pray that you ignite a fire under the families of our church that draws the lost near to you. Grant us the opportunities to serve and bestow the courage to say “yes” when we see it. I praise and thank you for the growth and healing that your will gives to many families as we unite under your banner. In your precious name, amen.
