Freedom!

Week 2—Freedom in the Present

Day 14—August 17, 2019

Freedom in Identity

Yet some people accepted him and put their faith in him. So he gave them the right to be the children of God. They were not God's children by nature or because of any human desires. God himself was the one who made them his children.

John 1:12-13 (CEV)

Dear Heavenly Father, I pray for everybody hearing this prayer that they would truly know who they are in Your eyes and how much You love them. May they see that their faith in Your son, Jesus, is the key to freedom. They can be free from any past mistakes, any past hurts, any past regrets and any emotional baggage they needlessly carry around with them. Knowing who they are in You, as Your child, a child of the King of Kings, Royalty....may the knowledge of their identity free them to live life fully and to bring You glory. Thank you for your Word in John 1:12-13.

“Yet some people accepted him and put their faith in him. So he gave them the right to be the children of God. They were not God's children by nature or because of any human desires. God himself was the one who made them his children.”

Lord, help us remember WHO we are by reminding us WHOSE we are! We love you, Father! In the name of Jesus, we pray. Amen.
